Jacqueline Matuza `03

2nd Term: 2011-2014

Jacqueline Matuza, MPH, CHP is the Teen Choice CAPP Manager at Inwood House. In her role at Inwood House, Jacqueline oversees three high school-based sexuality programs in New York City. Her work focuses on community health, sexual and reproductive health education for adolescents, and access to healthcare. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Justice and received her Master of Public Health degree from Drexel University. She received certification in public health from the National Board of Public Health Examiners in 2008.

Jacqueline has remained active at Manhattanville since graduating serving as Class Co-Chair, Class Agent, member of the New York City Alumni Club and Young Alumni Society, and as Secretary of the Alumni Association Board. She has worked with the Center for Career Development speaking with students interested in working in the non-profit sector, both one-on-one and at alumni panel events.

“I am thankful for everything Manhattanville has given me including a strong educational foundation, professional opportunities, and cherished friendships. I am so happy to give back to the College, the students, and alumni through my work on the Alumni Association Board and with the Office of Institutional Advancement.”
